

Western Sydney Men & Family Relationships Network

The Interagency Network
reflects a collaborative approach to supporting men
and their family Relationships in Western Sydney.

For more information on The Blokes Book contact:

Jess

P: 96273622

Dale

P: 88050922

Western Sydney Men and Family Relationships Network

Supports workers providing services to men and their families in Western Sydney.

Provides networking opportunities

Heightens awareness and understanding of issues that impact on men, their families and their relationships.

Links government and non-government agencies in the local areas.

Western Sydney Men and Family Relationships Network

The Interagency provides the Opportunity for workers to share Information about their services and activities to improve collaboration /referral processes between services

The network will heighten the awareness and understanding of issues that affect men, their families and their relationships.

The Interagency Network will provide and promote learning opportunities for workers

The Interagency Network acts as a vehicle for exchange of information
Vehicle for exchange of information, advocacy, collaboration and partnerships

The Interagency Network meets

2nd Wednesday
bi-monthly at

'Anglicare'
91 Kurrajong Ave
Mount Druitt
&
Family & Community
Services,
14 Prince Street
Blacktown

Time: 1.30pm to 4pm

Meeting Dates for 2012

8/2, 11/4, 13/6, 8/8,
10/10, 12/12

Actions:

- Hold bi-monthly meetings
- Provide opportunities to identify common issues/needs and develop responses in a collaborative manner
- Community Services, Health and other government officers to report trends and new Information at the Interagency meeting
- Promote training opportunities
- Information sharing
- Hold annual forum
- Relevant guest speakers
- Minutes to be distributed to the wider network in a timely manner
- Steering committee will chair meetings and look after planning